

Louisville Public Media Community Advisory Board Meeting Minutes
July 16, 2019

LPM Staff in Attendance: Tajah McQueen, Stacy Owen, Stephen George

CAB Members in Attendance: Brian Martin, Bill Coleman, Alex Simon, Kayla Phelps, Marie Dever, Mac Brown, Beth Howard, P. Kimé Lê, Natalie Stelzer, Todd Read, Jose Aponte, LaToya Whitlock, Melanie Veneracion-Parker, Donna Peak, Marcelline Coots, Kenisha Thompson, Pam Michaels, Yodit Dori, William Morrison, and Eric Gurevich
Laura Warren and Scott Estes --- via phone

Meeting called to order at 4:35pm

- Welcome -- Marie Dever
- Discussion about the status of the prior meetings minutes
- Stephen's Introduction- Stephen discussed his role as President of LPM and gave a brief description of who we are for all of our new members. With Daniel and Erica being out, Stephen also went over their station updates.
- Station Updates- Please Refer to Meeting Agenda. Additionally:
 - WUOL- We had over 150 people attend our latest New Lens event that we partner with 21c on. Teddy Abrams and Rachel Grimes were our guest performers along with some performances by Louisville Ballet dancers.
 - WFPL- Highlighted several of their recent accomplishments that can be found here. And we've released the podcast Here Today that we mentioned in the last meeting. We're currently on the 3rd episode and we'd love your feedback.
 - WFPK- Stacy, who was in attendance talked about how stellar Forecastle went for us this year. We had the ability to participate in a project called Tiny House. They provided us a temporary recording studio at Forecastle where we were able to interview artist like Cold War Kids and Sunflower Bean. Those videos live on WFPK's Facebook page.
- After the updates, several questions/ comments were made regarding the possibility of moving the New Lens event to a bigger more accessible venue. To which Stephen answered that that may be a possibility in the future. However, this season has already been assigned to 21c.
- CAB members both old and new broke off into teams to introduce themselves.

Meeting was adjourned at 5:30pm.